Resolution.

The President of the Council Rajasabhabhushana Dewan Bahadur, Mr. C. Srikantesvara Aiyar, B.A., B.L., was unable to preside owing to illness. Mr. E. This was seconded by Mr. Tippu Sultan Ali Khan. Mr. E. Purushothama Anandagiri Goswamy said that it was unnecessary to do so, and that some of the subjects at least could be disposed of by the meeting and that all these which could not be so disposed of by them, may be allowed to stand over. This was seconded by Mr. Y. Virupakshiah and supported by Messrs. T. S. Siddappa, Mahomed Sait and K. Dhanakoti Chetty. The proposition for adjournment was put to vote. The full amount had been recovered and further action necessary in the matter was under investigation. It was resolved that under such circumstances, viz., when the main complaint about the loss of Municipal Funds had been remedied through recovery of the same from the persons concerned, the consideration of the view of the President about the privileges of the Municipal Councillors in such affairs may be allowed to stand over till the completion of the President's dealing with the question and the records are made available.

II. - Sub-Committee Report regarding the duties of the Chief Sanitary Inspector.

The proceedings of the Sub-Committee and the Resolution passed by it were read to the Council in detail and were recorded.
